Probate Proceeding, Will of Abe J Rieder

DECREE GRANTING PROBATE

File No. 2025-267

aka Abe Rieder

Deceased.

A verified petition having been filed by Benjamin Rieder praying for a decree admitting to probate a written instrument dated January 31, 2005 propounded as the Last Will and Testament of the above named decedent; and

It satisfactorily appearing that all the persons required by law to be cited or who are interested in this proceeding have either failed to appear in response to a duly served citation or by their waiver and consent in writing duly executed and filed, waived the issuance and service upon them of a citation in this proceeding or have appeared and consented to the probate of the propounded instrument; and that notice of probate has been given to all persons entitled to such notice; and

The probate not having been contested; and proofs having been duly filed on behalf of the attesting witnesses to the foregoing testamentary instrument; and it appearing by such proofs that the same were duly executed and are genuine and valid and that the decedent at the time of executing same was in all respects competent to make a will and not under restraint; it is ORDERED AND DECREED, that the instrument offered for probate herein be, and the same hereby is admitted to probate as the Last Will and Testament of the above-named decedent, valid to pass real and personal property, that the Will and this Decree be recorded and that Letters Testamentary issue to Benjamin Rieder upon properly qualifying for such office.

Before the Court is an uncontested proceeding to admit to probate the propounded instrument as the decedent's last will and testament. Jurisdiction is complete. No objections have been interposed. The Court is satisfied that the propounded instrument was duly executed in accordance with the requirements of EPTL §3-2.1, and that the decedent was competent to make a will and free of restraint or undue influence at the time of execution. SCPA §1408.

Accordingly, the petition is granted; the propounded instrument will be admitted to probate and letters testamentary shall issue.

Decree signed.
